A. NOTICE OF DEADLINE TO FILE OBJECTION

The court previously approved attorney fees and expenses in an amount not to exceed a maximum under the Chapter 13 Attorney Fee Guidelines. Debtor's attorney now seeks approval of additional fees and expenses.

Your rights may be affected. You should read the application and the accompanying papers carefully and discuss them with your attorney, if you have one in this bankruptcy case. (If you do not have an attorney, you may wish to consult one.)

If you do not want the court to approve this application, or if you want the court to consider your views on it, then within 20 days after the filing of this application, you or your attorney must file an objection explaining your position with the court and mail a copy to the Debtor's attorney at the respective addresses below:

United States Bankruptcy Court District of Hawaii 1132 Bishop Street, Suite 250L Honolulu, Hawaii 96813	Objection due by: (not less than 20 days after filing)	Debtor / Attorney address:
--	--	-----------------------------------

If you mail your response to the court for filing, you must mail it early enough so the court will receive it on or before the date specified above. If a timely objection is filed, the court will schedule a hearing and you will be notified of the date and time. If you or your attorney do not file a timely response and request a hearing, the court may decide that you do not object to the request and may enter an order approving the application.

B. APPLICATION

Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 330, Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2016(a), and the Chapter 13 Attorney Fee Guidelines, the undersigned hereby seeks the award and allowance of additional compensation and reimbursement for expenses. The initial agreed-upon fee and any additional allowed fees and expenses are insufficient to compensate the Applicant for the actual legal services rendered in this case. After exercising billing judgment, Applicant believes that the total hours expended in this case and the total fees and expenses requested are reasonable. Detailed billing records for all services rendered in this case are attached.
